KEY WORKS

Entanglement! An Entropic tale – Chamber Opera in 3 acts. Composed for 5 singers and 7 musicians. This work is defined as a cosmic dissemination opera. It tells the story of an Electron and a Positron stuck in a quantum quandary arising as a result of the unstoppable, chaotic destruction of our known universe.

Two Homages, Two Gents – Piece for sinfonietta ensemble commissioned by Thallein Ensemble and Royal Birmingham Conservatoire for the Edwin Roxburgh and Howard Skempton Celebratory Concert. The work is heavily influenced by the composer's music for the 2016 Birmingham School of Acting production of "The Two Gentlemen of Verona".

Can l'erba – For piano-singer. Commissioned by pianist Eric McElroy and composer Seán Clancy to be premiered at Birmingham Conservatoire's CODA festival. Inspired by the simplicity of open octaves, long spaces underscore the poetry of the troubadour Bernat de Ventadorn. (2017)

duende, evocació – Homage piece to Spanish poet Federico García Lorca for the 80th anniversary of his murder. The piece tries to evoke the passion and the feeling of the connection with the audience that the concept of “duende” inspires. It was awarded with the “Birmingham Chamber Music Society Composition Award 2017”. (2017)

La Obisparra – 50’ piece for orchestra, mezzo and theatrical masquerade. The piece brings to stage the Celtic Winter Masquerades from Zamora, that, as fertility ritual appears all along Europe. Hybrid between folk theatre, ballet and opera, “La Obisparra” was premiered at 2016 Birmingham’s Frontiers Festival. It was awarded with the “Birmingham Conservatoire Orchestral Composition Prize 2016”. (2016)

“The detail of texture and orchestration really are very effective and capture a sound-world that is at once like a fairy-tale and unfolds the story very subtly. The, what I can only call ‘lush’ sound world reminds me sometimes of wonderful composers like Janacek, Stravinsky or even Scriabin at moments.”

Andrew Toovey, composer, 2016.

“.@FrontiersPlus I don't think I've ever seen anything quite like this! Fair play to @Daniblancocomp!”

Sean Clancy, composer, 2016

Papallones silenciades sobre una mar de gel – for mixed ensemble. Set of four miniatures composed for the Birmingham Contemporary Music Group as part of their project “Birmingham Conservatoire Student Composer Workshops 2016”. (2016)

Columna Vertebral: Sageta de Foc – for Violin, Viola, Trumpet and Baritone. This piece sets music to the poem with the same name by the symbolist and futurist poet Joan Salvat-Papasseit. It was awarded with the “Philip Bates Composition prize 2015”. (2015)

Una Rosa entre Bambalinas – Commissioned for the Inauguration of the XV Castile-León Theatre Fair. Piece composed in homage to Rosa García Cano. (2012)

UPCOMING WORKS

Besse – Trilogy about fermentation and feminism. March, April and May 2019.
